Upcoming Events:
Fleet Week begins Saturday as we welcome several Navy, Coast Guard and Canadian ships and a compliment of over 10,000 sailors to our grand City. The Blue Angels will be flying overhead prior to that, as always they are a grand sight but please mind your driving!

The "10/10" and Italian Heritage Parades will be held on the 7th and 8th in Chinatown and North Beach respectively.

On Thursday October 5th there will be a demonstration and march by "The World Can't Wait" organization to protest the US government. The group will stage at Justin Herman Plaza at noon, march up Market Street at 1 PM or so and lead a group of 3,000-10,000 up Market Street onto McAllister, to Civic Center.
The march will turn onto Polk to Golden Gate where they will protest in front of the Federal Building. At approximately 3 PM they will march down Golden Gate back to Market Street and back to Justin Herman Plaza where they plan to have an overnight vigil. There are applications for sound trucks and devices and the overnight stay. Traffic will no doubt be impaired.

Crimes of Note:
On 9/22/06 at 7:45 AM Officers responded from a traffic detail at Post and Kearny to the 100 block of Post Street regarding a prowler inside a business complex. Officers Scott Korte, Howard Chu, Jonathan Tong and Ben Manning set up a perimeter and conducted a search until Officer Chu spotted the burglar exiting an elevator. While identifying the suspect, the officers learned that he had just been released from County Jail for Burglary charges.

On 9/25/06 at 3 PM Officers Phil Welch, Jim Gratz and Ed Robles responded to Hyde and Beach for a stabbing victim. The victim and his girlfriend had a dispute with two suspects when one pulled a knife and stabbed him in the chest. Officer Welch saw suspects board a MUNI bus and detained them. He discovered a knife near where they were sitting and another knife in the pocket in the pocket of one of the suspects pants. Both suspects were positively identified and booked for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and conspiracy.

On 9/25/06 at 3:30 PM Officer Mary Godfrey and Sgt. Ed Cheung responded to a clothing store on the 100 block of Stockton regarding a suit theft valued at $4700. The suspect was detained at the 400 block of Sutter, still in possession of the suit. The suspect was known to the officers as having been convicted of impersonating a police officer in the past. Once detained, they discovered a fake Sheriff's badge and after a search of his vehicle, discovered two loaded and concealed hand guns.

On 9/30/06 at 1:45 AM several Officers responded to Broadway and Sansome Streets to stop a large fight involving several males. Sgts. Seth Riskin and Dom Panina and Officers Keith Matthews, Sean O'Brien, Sam Yuen, and Joe Porta detained several individuals. Officer Matthews discovered a loaded concealed handgun inside the waistband of one of the suspects on scene.

Four suspects from Concord, Brentwood, Bay Point and Colma were booked on various charges from carrying a concealed handgun to aggravated assault. Two victims suffered contusions and a bloody nose as a result of the initial assault.

Finally, on 10/01/06 at 02:35 AM, Officers Sam Yuen and Joe Porta were flagged down at Stockton and Broadway by a restaurant employee. He pointed to 3 individuals and said "that's them, stop them." The Officers detained the individuals, suspecting that they were involved in a crime. Officer Porta found a concealed, loaded handgun in one of the detainee's waistbands. The officers found that they were originally wanted for defrauding a business by running out on the bill. Two of the three suspects from Daly City were booked.
