Walk For Food Allergy
More than 12 million people in the U.S.A. suffer from food allergies, including over 2 million school-aged children. Sadly there is currently no cure for food allergies. The national non-profit organization The Food Allergy & Anaphylaxis Network (FAAN) is working to change that, and you can help!

FAAN is holding a national fundraising event, Walk for Food Allergy: Moving Toward A Cure in 20 cities across the country. The Walk for Food Allergy in San Francisco will be in Golden Gate Park at the Music Concourse, in front of the de Young Museum.

The Walk for Food Allergy in San Francisco is Saturday, September 15th. Please sign up now! Those interested can register to walk as an individual, as part of a walk team, or if you cannot be there that day, as a "virtual walker". Individuals and businesses are also welcome to sponsor the event and to volunteer for the Walk.

Everyone is welcome to come join in the fun.

Crimes and Law Enforcement
THE BELOW LISTED INCIDENTS WERE SUBMITTED BY INDIVIDUALS OF BAYVIEW STATION:

Monday, August 13, 2007 – 1:10 AM – Robbery with a gun, arrest made – Newcomb Avenue and Lane Street – CS# 070 818 968 – A man was walking home from the bus stop when he was approached by three gunman that demanded his money. One of the robbers took twelve dollars from the man's pocket and they fled the scene. Officers Cabuntala and Ma drove the victim around the area and found the suspects in the 1500 block of Palou Avenue. The suspects were detained. Nearby, under a car, two revolvers were located. Two adults, and one juvenile were booked for robbery charges. Incidentally, one of the adults has an open case for weapons possession and was a recent victim of a gun shot wound.

Monday, August 13, 2007 - 10:40 AM, Stolen Vehicle, Arrest Made – Bayshore Boulevard/Paul Avenue - CS# 070 820 333 – Officer Laffey and Dalton were driving on Bayshore Boulevard when Officer Laffey saw a woman running from a car that was stalled in the intersection of Bayshore Boulevard and Paul Avenue. Believing that something was wrong they went to find the woman. They found her a block away throwing her jacket into another car parked on the Corner of Wheat Street and Paul Avenue. That car had its motor running but its keys were missing. Another woman was sitting in the passenger seat. Both women were detained. A computer search revealed that the car left abandoned in the intersection and the car that the woman was running to be both reported stolen. Both women were booked.

Monday, August 13, 2007 – 9:52 PM – Aggravated Assault with a gun – 3rd Street and Newcomb Avenue - CS# 070 823 042 – An eighteen year old Bayview resident was a victim of a gun shot wound as he stood on the corner of 3rd Street and Newcomb Avenue. The wounds were non-life threatening. Witnesses reported seeing a black male fleeing the area in a silver Pontiac. Surveillance tapes are being reviewed for more leads.

Monday, August 13, 2007 – 8:00 PM – Possession of an Assault Rifle – 1100 block of Oakdale Avenue – CS# 070 822 680 – Bayview Officer responded to the scene of an argument where shots have been fired. Upon their arrival they met with security guards that stated that they saw a male fire an assault style rifle and flee into a home. Bayview Officer received permission from the home that the person was seen running into. They went inside and found the man that the security guards saw fire the gun. The man was brought into custody and the gun was located. The man, a member of the Oakdale Mob that has been served with the gang injunction, was booked for weapons related charges.

Wednesday, August 15, 2007 – 12:01 AM – Discharging a Firearm – Double Rock Court – CS# 070 827 204 – Bayview Units responded to the area of Double Rock Court on a report of someone firing a gun. A witness was able to give the call taker a description of the car and a partial license plate. A car matching that description was seen fleeing the area and police attempted to stop it with no avail. The car was later found at the scene of the original shooting. The car was left open and was searched. Inside was a .40 caliber handgun. The gun was seized and is undergoing forensic testing. The car was towed.

Thursday, August 17, 2007 – 12:01 AM – Aggravated Assault – 3rd Street and Thornton Avenue – CS# 070 834 782 – Bayview Officers Graves and Jackson reported that a man was struck in the head with an ax handle. The victim told police that he was approached by two men who asked him where they could buy drugs. As the victim was telling the men where they could buy drugs one of the men struck the man in the back of the head with the ax handle. The man ran to his sister's house for aid. While the police were questioning him, the sister urged the victim to tell the truth. It is believed that their maybe more to the story than the victim let on.

Sunday, August 19, 2007 – 3:00 PM – Parole Violation – False Information to a Police Officer - CS# 070 844 236 – Bayview Bike Officers Martin and Festa spotted a woman drinking a beer on the 1600 block of McKinnon Avenue. They detained her and performed a records check with the name that she gave them. They were unable to find any record of the woman. She was brought back to the station and identified by the fingerprint machine. She had good reason to lie; she was a parolee at large. She was booked for a parole warrant, lying to the police, as well as drinking an alcoholic beverage.
