ARRESTS OF INTEREST:

Saturday, January 24, 2009 – 2:29 PM – Burglary of a Commercial Establishment, Probation Violation – 2100 block of Palou Avenue – CS# 090 087 422 – Two men from Potrero Hill Housing were arrested after they were seen stealing items from a workshop on the 2100 block of Palou Avenue. The proprietor saw that numerous items from the workshop were missing and reviewed the security tape. He saw two men enter the rear of his shop and take various tools. Another camera was able to get the license plate of the get away car. The information was broadcast citywide over the police radio.

A half an hour later the car was found in front of the males' house with both suspects inside. They were taken into custody and all of the tools were returned to the victim. The men, both on probation were booked at County Jail for numerous theft and probation violations.

Saturday, January 24, 2009 – 2:33 PM – DMV Fraud, Bank Robbery Arrest – 3rd and Tennessee Streets – CS# 090 087 886 - A routine computer check on a license plate yielded an arrest of a Vallejo man for vehicle violations and bank robbery. Bayview plainclothes officers were behind a suspicious vehicle. They radioed in a suspicious license plate and learned that it belonged to a Chevrolet, however, the car they were looking at was a Nissan. They pulled the car over and detained the driver. During the course of investigation the driver matched the description of a man who robbed a bank on San Bruno Avenue. In fact he was wearing the same clothes and had the same tell tale limp that the bank robbery suspect had. The man was transported to County Jail and booked on felony motor vehicle violations. The Robbery Bureau and F.B.I are following up on the man's possible involvement in the bank robbery.

Friday, January 23, 2009 – 8:00 PM – Recovered Vehicle, Parolee at Large – Lane Street and Newcomb Avenue – CS# 090 081 399 – Plainclothes Officers were driving behind a 1989 Camry and learned that it was stolen. A traffic stop was performed and the driver who also happened to be a parolee at large was taken into custody without incident.

Saturday, January 24, 2009 – 10:59 PM – Assault with a gun – Oakdale Ave and Baldwin Courts – CS# 090 088 884 - A fifteen-year-old boy was struck by gunfire as he left his girlfriend's house. The youth told police that as he left the house and heard gunshots and then felt pain in his leg. He was treated for a gunshot wound to his hip and expected to be released.

Sunday, January 25, 2009 – 3:00 AM – Alcohol and Permit violations – 3100 block of 3rd Street – CS# 090 089 440 – Numerous citizen complaints regarding a large, noisy gathering on the 3100 block of Third Street, uncovered an illegal nightclub. Bayview Officers responded to the scene and saw a large group of people outside. They engaged in casual conversation with the group and learned that the normally mild mannered business by day doubles as a raucous, illegal night club at night that charges a $20.00 cover charge. Bayview Officers went inside and found 500 people, flyers advertising the event, a professional sound system, and two full service bars. The party was dispersed and the investigation will be turned over to various agencies.
