ARRESTS OF INTEREST:

February 20, 2009-Stolen Property, Conspiracy, Burglary of a Vehicle-1:40am-Indiana/Mariposa-CN#090184216:

Officer Ochoa was on patrol in the area of Indiana and Mariposa when he observed two subjects suspiciously walking away from a parked vehicle. The subjects jumped into another car as Officer Ochoa headed towards them. The suspect vehicle then drove away at a high rate of speed. Several officers arrived to assist in taking the suspects into custody, without incident. After searching the suspect's vehicle, officers found numerous items of evidence in the car and were able to contact most of the owners of those items in order to return them.

February 20, 2009-Cocaine for sale, Battery of a Police Officer-12:09am-Kieth/Thomas-CN#090184056:

Officer Singh and Officer Kornegay were on patrol in the area of Shafter and Keith when they saw a car, stopped mid block on the street, with a subject leaning into the car window. The subject quickly stood straight up and walked away when he saw officers approaching and the vehicle left the area. Officers followed and pulled the vehicle over. Officers spoke with the driver and saw, in plain view, suspected narcotics on the floor of the vehicle. The driver was placed under arrest and the narcotics were seized by officers. After further investigation, officers found that the driver had a suspended license. Officers transported the driver back to Bayview station where they recovered more suspected narcotics from her person. The suspect became combative, kicking one officer in the chest and another in the leg. The suspect continually yelled obscenities at officers and attempted to get away, to no avail. The officers were not injured during the attack.

February 19, 2009-Loaded Gun in a Vehicle, Possession of Marijuana for sale-10:42pm-Silver/San Bruno-CN#090173826:

Members of Bayview's plainclothes team were traveling in the area of Silver and Girard when the saw a car parked in front of a liquor store with a known subject leaning into the car window. Officer Mustafich drove past very slowly and made eye contact with the driver and passenger. The passenger, upon seeing the officers, jumped out of the car and began to walk away. The driver, who remained in the car, was seen placing something from the front seat to the back seat. Officers also recalled an earlier report of this same vehicle, which had taken off at a high rate of speed when officers attempted to pull it over for a traffic violation. Officer searched the vehicle and located a gun and suspected marijuana. The driver was placed under arrest, without incident. The gun and suspected marijuana were seized as evidence and the vehicle was towed.

INCIDENTS OF INTEREST:

February 18, 2009-Reckless Driving-6:30pm-1300-1400 blk of Revere-CN#090179079:

Officer Williams and Training Officer Sanders were patrolling in the area of Jennings Avenue when they heard, in the distance, screeching tires and an engine revving. Officers saw the driver of the car, who was performing "donuts" in a reckless manner, on the street. Officers apprehended the driver who was cited and released. The vehicle was towed. No one was injured during the incident.

A MUNI bus collided into a building causing considerable damage to the MUNI bus and the building late Thursday night. Officers spoke with the driver who stated that that the crash happened very fast and that he was unsure what caused it. A pedestrian, standing near the building that was hit, had to jump out of the way when he saw the bus approaching. He was treated by SFFD for complaints of pain. A MUNI Inspector responded to the accident, as did PG&E, who repaired a pole that was also damaged.

February 19, 2009-Battery of a Police Officer, Resisting Police-Vandalism to a Vehicle.

Officer Gritsch and Officer Fong were parked on Mendell when they saw a subject, who was intoxicated, stumbling and yelling at passers by. Officers then saw a bottle flying through the air, towards the police car, striking the windshield and breaking the glass. Officers detained the intoxicated subject, who struck one of the officers with an elbow to the chest. The suspect then broke free and attempted to run away. Other officers arrived and caught the suspect, who had to be physically controlled. Officers placed the subject under arrest and transported him to Bayview station, where he was cited. Due to the suspect's level of intoxication, Officers called for a medic to transport him to S.F.G.H.

BURGLARY INCIDENTS:

February 17, 090176100- Burglary residence, 200 block of Arkansas St: Front door forced open, two bicycles stolen

February 19, 090181612- Burglary residence, unit block of Silliman: Glass pane in door broken, electronic dictionary stolen
