2010 White House Spring internship
Deadline for App - Sept 20th

One person can make a difference. It can be you or someone you know. President Obama needs a few good people for the White House Spring Internships. Applications are due September 20, 2009.

We are pleased to announce that the application for the 2010 Spring Internship is now available at whitehouse.gov/about/internships.

The application includes two essays, three letters of recommendation and a resume. Each applicant will be evaluated on three basic qualities: a commitment to public service, demonstration of leadership in the community and dedication to the mission of this Administration. The applicant's communication, writing and office skills will also be reviewed and considered. An applicant's GPA is not figured into the final score, and each application is reviewed on a semi-blind basis.

White House Internships are unpaid positions. Applicants are encouraged to contact educational and other non-profit organizations to apply for funding or housing assistance. Applicants may contact local schools for housing opportunities.

ARRESTS:

September 9, 2009-Conspiracy, Vehicle Burglary, Possession of Burglary Tools-4:35am-Pennsylvania/Mariposa-CN#090927204:
Officers Cahill, Gummo and Dizon were in the area of Minnesota and 19th streets investigating auto burglaries. Officers saw two subjects who were walking in the area, wiping the condensation off of car windows and looking inside the cars, utilizing a flashlight. Officers watched as the subjects did this to several parked cars in the area. Officers detained the subjects and confiscated burglary tools on them. After a brief investigation, one of the suspects confessed to the officers. Both suspects were placed under arrest and transported to Bayview station.

September 7, 2009-Exhibiting Deadly Weapon, Under the influence of Alcohol-2:15pm-3000 blk of Jennings-CN#090921046:
Officers Catlett and Mora responded to Jennings St regarding someone brandishing a knife. Officers detained a subject who matched the description and was in possession of a knife. Officers then spoke to the victim, who stated that he heard noise outside of his room and looked into the hall to see what was happening. The victim saw the suspect, standing in the hallway, apparently drunk, breaking and throwing things. The suspect also had a knife in his hand, which he wielded above his head in a threatening manner. The victim called immediately for police and officers responded. They quickly located the suspect and placed him into custody, confiscating the knife as evidence. No one was injured during the incident.

September 7, 2009-Possession of a Loaded firearm, Marijuana Offense, Carrying Concealed Weapon-2:15pm-4000 blk of 3rd, CN#090920985:
Officers Robinson and Whitfield were on patrol when they were flagged down by a citizen who stated that a subject had just broken a window to a business and then walked away. Officers located the suspect and detained him, locating a gun in his waistband. Officers confiscated the gun and placed him under arrest. Officers also located suspected marijuana on him, which was confiscated. During the investigation, the victim positively identified the suspect as the one who broke the window.

September 5, 2009-Burglary of a residence, forcible entry, Possession of Burglary Tools-11:30pm-Hunters Point Blvd-CN#0090912681:
Officers Boghesani, Gummo, and Cader were dispatched to a call regarding a burglary. Officers on scene had already detained two subjects and had been told by one that he was “breaking into the house to get his stuff.” Officers saw that the front door had been pried open and that the door jam had been broken.

Officers then spoke with the victim, who stated that her friend had been staying with her, but had left for over a year and now returned and broke into the house to retrieve his belongings. Officers placed the suspect under arrest without incident.

September 5, 2009-Aggravated Assault w/gun, with force-1:54am-Indiana/19TH-CN#090912982:
While at Bayview Station, Officer Gritsch received information that a person had been shot, at a night club, in the Bayview District. Officers responded to that club and located a victim, who had been grazed by a stray bullet. Officers called for a medic to treat the victim. Officers spoke further with the victim who stated that there were fights going on in the club and outside the club, when shots rang out. Officers located a second victim, who stated that he was jumped by an unknown subject and that he fought back until the subject left the area. The medic also tended to this victim's non-life threatening injuries. Moments later, Officer Talusan located a gun and casings, which he seized. Officers ran the gun and discovered it was stolen.

ARRESTS:

September 10, 2009-Receiving Stolen Property, Possession of Burglary Tools-2:28am-19th/Minnesota-CN#090931324:
Officers Skaug, Guzman and Cowhig were in the area of Minnesota St, when they observed a man walking his dog in the park, which was closed. Officers detained the subject and discovered a warrant for his arrest. Officers transported the suspect back to Bayview Station, where a preliminary investigation took place. Officer Lee, the Station Keeper, questioned the suspect regarding the fact that he lived on the other side of town, but was walking his dog in a park, in a district, far from his home. The suspect told Officer Lee that he had a UHAUL van parked on Minnesota St, which officers found the key for, as well as several burglary tools in his jacket.

Officers responded to the UHAUL truck and located a bevy of stolen property, including credit cards and id cards in numerous peoples names. Officers investigated further and found that numerous burglaries and thefts had taken place in various parts of the city and that the id's, credit and stolen property were linked to these incidents.

September 9, 2009-Warrant Arrest, Driving No license issued-10:21am-Hawes/Hollister-CN#090927925:
Members of Bayviews Housing Team were in the Alice Griffith Housing Development when they saw a car, with no license plate, driving toward the gate to exit. Officers stopped the car and discovered that the driver had no license and no proof of insurance. Officers also find an outstanding traffic warrant for the driver's arrest. The subject was taken into custody, transported to Bayview station and booked. The subject's car was towed to the car impound lot.

September 9, 2009-Cocaine for sale, Meth for sale, Loitering where narcotics are used/sold-4:02pm-3rd/Newcomb-CN#090929410:
Members of Bayview's plain clothes team were in the area of 3rd and Newcomb when they saw two subjects that they know from prior drug arrests, walking down the street. The subjects got to the end of the block and engaged in conversation with another subject, who exchanged an object that was in his hand, with the hand of one of the two subjects. Officers recognized this as a hand to hand drug transaction. Officers placed two out of the three suspects into custody and located suspected narcotics on both.

Robberies, no arrest:

September 10, 2009-Robbery, w/gun-5:30am-20th/Tennesse-CN#090931421:
A victim was robbed of her laptop, purse, cell phone and earphones by a gun toting suspect, who told the victim, "give me your laptop, or I will shoot you."

The victim told officers that she did not see the gun, but that she was in fear for her life. The suspect fled in a car after the robbery. Officers did not locate the suspect or the victim's items. The victim was not injured during the robbery.

September 10, 2009-Robbery, w/gun-11:36pm-Scotia Ave-CN#090935047:
A victim was robbed at gunpoint by two unknown subjects, while she was waiting for a bus on Silver Ave. The victim stated that the two subjects walked towards him, pulled out a gun and jabbed stuck it into his face, demanding money. The victim gave the suspects all the money he had. The suspects fled after completing the robbery. The victim was not injured. Officers searched the area, but did not locate the suspects. Officers drove the victim home.

September 10, 2009-Robbery w/gun-9:10pm-100 blk of Wayland-CN#090934657:
A victim was robbed of money and jewels by two unknown suspects, one of which pointed a gun at the victim and demanded money. The other suspect pulled out a knife and threatened the victim with it. The suspects both fled on foot and were last seen running up Girard Street, after the attack. The victim was not injured during the incident. Officers were not able to locate the suspects.

September 9, 2009-Robbery w/force-4:05pm-Bacon/Goettingen-CN#090929523:
A victim was robbed of her ipod, keys and library card while walking on Goettingen, near the library. The victim stated that the two juvenile suspects came up behind her, pushed her to the ground and took all the items that fell out of her purse. The victim sustained a scrape to her hand, but refused medical attention. The suspects fled on foot after the attack. Officers were unable to locate the suspects.
