BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE September 7, 2004

Harumbe in the Park

The 4th annual Harumbe in the Park family day will take place Saturday, September 18, at Bayview Playground, 3rd and Armstrong Streets, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. This event will feature a jump land, a spelling bee, an essay contest, arts and crafts, food and beverages, games, dancers, live music, and much more. This event is sponsored by the United Council of Human Services, the Resource Drop-in Center, the Bayview Hunter's Point Multi-Service Center, Mother Brown's Dining Room, and the Bayview Rotary Club. For more information phone 671-1107.

ROSES

Another reminder that the September ROSES meeting will take place this Thursday, September 9, at 7:00 p.m. at Bayview Station's community room. Note that I just saw the flyer which was sent out announcing this meeting, and it incorrectly lists the location of the meeting as the Southeast Community Facility on Oakdale Avenue. This facility was not available, and the meeting will be held at Bayview Station.

You Know It's a Bad Day When..

You take one day off and your secretary phones you that afternoon to tell you that your office has been infested with fleas from the feral cats that live in the station parking lot. When you inquire as to the steps being taken to eradicate the flea infestation, she then informs you that they really can't deal with the fleas right now, because the plumbers are trying to figure out why raw sewage is backing up in your office's rest-room. Lesson learned: don't take any days off.
