

BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE March 23, 2005

Easter Egg Hunt

Operation Dream is hosting its 11th annual Easter Egg Hunt this Saturday, March 26, from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Monster Park (Candlestick). This event is for boys and girls 10 years of age and younger, and will include music, food, entertainment, games and prizes. Transportation from numerous sites in the city will be provided. This event is sponsored by Monster Cable, City Kidz, PSI Seminars, Wells Fargo Bank, the San Francisco Police Officers' Association, and the Officers for Justice. Operation Dream is looking for community members who would like to volunteer at this event. For more information, please phone Charles McCullar at 671-3156.

Crime and Enforcement Update

Attempted Stolen Auto, 2474 Griffith, March 21, 10:00 p.m.
Bayview Officers Mostasisa and Cohen responded on the call of an auto break-in and spoke with the caller who stated that she heard her vehicle alarm sound and saw a suspect running away from her vehicle. The victim went to her car and found that a window had been smashed and the ignition had been tampered with. The suspect is described only as a black male with a black jacket (050 317 742).

Burglary Arrest, 5110 3rd Street, March 22, 8:36 a.m.
Bayview Officers Dicroce and Jue responded on a report of a burglary in progress and saw a man running from 5110 3rd Street toward Shafter with a baseball bat in his hand. The man yelled to officers that he was the victim of a burglary and was chasing the suspect. Bayview Officers Cohen and Mostasisa were also responding to the area when they saw a man matching the description provided of the suspect fleeing from the area. The officers lost sight of the man and then saw a Muni bus pulling away from the area. The officers stopped the bus and located the man, and they removed him from the bus pending a "cold show" with the victim. The victim, along with an additional witness, positively identified the detained man as the burglar he had just seen inside his home. The man, a transient, was booked for burglary (050 317 902).

Burglary Arrest, 1475 Underwood, March 22, 8:36 a.m.
Bayview Officer Altorfer had just taken a burglary report from a man living on the 1400 block of Underwood when he heard that a suspect was being detained on 3rd Street from a burglary which had just been committed on the 5100 block of 3rd Street (above). The description of the detained man matched the description provided by the victim from Underwood and the officer brought the victim to 3rd Street for a "cold show." The female victim positively identified the detained man as the burglar she had just seen inside her home. When the victim had confronted him, the burglar had stated, "I'm gonna jack you bi___. I'm from the Stackhouse. I'll come back and get you bi___." The suspect then ran from the home as the victim was calling police. The suspect, a transient, was booked for an additional count of burglary, as well as one count of dissuading a witness for his actions in this case (050 317 902).

Robbery Arrest, 1028 Connecticut, March 22, 10:04 a.m.

Bayview Officers Reynoso and Rodatos were on patrol on Potrero Hill when they saw one of the two men wanted in connection with an armed robbery committed March 20 on the 700 block of Missouri Street (reported in yesterday's e-mail). The man, living on the 900 block of Connecticut, was arrested and charged with armed robbery, conspiracy, gang charges, and violation of probation. Many residents of Potrero Hill have been telling our officers that this man and his associate (still wanted) have been terrorizing people living in the area for some time (050 316 540).

Warrant Arrest, 6245 3rd Street, March 22, 10:55 a.m.

Bayview Officer Altorfer stopped a vehicle for traffic violations and determined that the driver, living on the 1500 block of VanDyke, was wanted for an outstanding arrest warrant charging him with possession of cocaine and possession of paraphernalia. The man was booked for the warrant (050 318 693).

Hot Prowl Burglary Arrest, 44 Ledyard, March 22, 11:04 a.m.

Bayview Officers Pai and Reyes responded to Ledyard Street on a report of a burglary in progress involving three male suspects. The officers found a house with a front door which had been forced open, and upon entering the house, the officers could see that the house was ransacked. The officers then heard a woman in a nearby house screaming, "Get out of my house." The officers ran to the second house and caught a young man running from the house and arrested him. The man had numerous pieces of evidence in his pockets, including a fifty dollar bill. The young man, 17 years of age and living on the 1200 block of Shafter, was booked at YGC for two counts of burglary, conspiracy and possession of stolen property. Note that the officers had located the fifty dollar bill upon first patting the suspect down, but had left it in the suspect's pockets awaiting the arrival of the Burglary Inspectors. When the pocket was checked again, the fifty dollar bill was gone. The suspect, while still handcuffed, had somehow managed to hide it between the cheeks of his buttocks. It was recovered and booked as evidence by an officer I can only describe as highly dedicated (050 319 845).

Hot Prowl Burglary Arrest, 44 Ledyard, March 22, 11:04 a.m.

As part of the above described ongoing investigation, numerous additional Bayview officers responded to the area in order to search for the two additional suspects who had been seen by witnesses. One group of officers located and detained a man who matched the description provided of the burglars as he exited Silver Terrace Park. A second team of officers located and detained a third suspect as he ran down Vesta Street. These two suspects were eventually tied back to the two burglaries which had just been committed on Ledyard Street. In addition, these same two suspects, along with the suspect mentioned above, were the same three suspects stopped a day earlier by Bayview officers following another burglary in the area. The car they had been driving when stopped, a teal colored Thunderbird, was found parked nearby on Silver Avenue and was towed with a hold for our Burglary Detail. The first suspect in this case, 28 years of age and living on the first block of Westpoint Road, was booked for burglary, possession of stolen property, conspiracy, and violation of parole. The second suspect, 24 years of age and living on 16th Avenue, was booked for burglary, conspiracy, and an outstanding arrest warrant (050 318 803).

Warrant Arrest, 16th and Illinois, March 22, 7:51 p.m.

Bayview Officer Buelow was on patrol when he saw a fire burning inside a vacant building and entered the building to investigate. The officer found three men inside the building next to a fire in a barbeque pit. The first man, a transient, was arrested for an outstanding warrant from Lake County charging him with possession of cocaine. The second man, also a transient, was arrested for an outstanding warrant charging him with possession of methamphetamine for sale. The third man, also a transient, was not currently wanted, although he was on parole, and he was admonished regarding his activities and released (050 321 129).

Illegal Lodging, Indiana and 20th, March 22, 10:16 p.m.

Bayview Officer Buelow was on patrol when he found a man living in a motorhome on a public street. The man, who provided a home address on the 200 block of Potrero, told the officer that he has been living in this way for 12 years. The man was cited for the offense (050 317 269).

Illegal Lodging, Fitch and Innes, March 23, 12:11 a.m.

Bayview Officer Buelow was on patrol when he found a man living inside a bus parked on a public street. The man, who provided a home address on the 200 block of Potrero, was cited for the offense (050 321 668).

Aggravated Assault, 750 Sweeny, March 23, 12:18 a.m.

Bayview Officers Farrell and Anderson responded on the call of a battery in progress and met with a female victim with visible facial injuries. The victim told the officers that her live-in boyfriend had just accused her of having an affair with another man, and had then beaten her severely with a belt when she told him that she had been out with her daughter. The suspect fled the premises before the arrival of the officers. The case is being handled by our Domestic Violence Unit (050 321 709).
