

BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE July 22, 2004

Polo Shirts Needed

The Malcolm X Academy, which is a public elementary school on Hunter's Point Hill, is preparing to welcome back their students on August 30. The principal, Ms. Rosalind Sarah, is asking for help in providing the kids with white or navy polo shirts, which are the required uniform for the school. She will accept donations of new or used items, and she can be reached at 510-540-7105. Sizes needed range from small to Adult XL.

L.A. Housing Trip

I travelled to Los Angeles yesterday and met with officers from the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department who are assigned to police the various public housing developments in Los Angeles County. Their community policing approach in Los Angeles has been extremely successful, and we had an open and frank discussion about how best to address issues of crime and violence in and around public housing. I plan to take our entire team to Los Angeles in the next couple of months so that we can observe first hand the methods which have been employed so successfully.

APRI Education Conference

Ms. Brenda Henry, a resident and community organizer from Potrero Hill, is attempting to raise funds so that she can attend the 35th annual A. Philip Randolph Institute National Education Conference. The APRI works to serve as a bridge between labor and the African American community. Ms. Henry resides in the Potrero Hill Development and has assisted us in putting together youth activities on the hill. Ms. Henry can be reached at 218-7460.
