BAYVIEW COMMUNITY UPDATE July 12, 2005

Passing the Torch

Yesterday we welcomed back Officer Herman Luedtke to the Bayview. Officer

Luedtke was deployed to Iraq one year ago, and just completed his tour of duty. This evening we are giving Officer Brent Bradford a farewell party, as he is being activated for training to Fort Bragg, North Carolina on Sunday, in preparation for eventual deployment to Iraq as a member of Alpha Company, 5th Battalion, 19th Special Forces. We wish Brent a safe tour and a speedy return to the Bayview.

Late Night Bayview All-Stars versus the SFPD

The Late Night (Basketball) All-Stars will play a team made up of San Francisco police officers tomorrow night at the Joe Lee Gym, beginning around 7:30~p.m.

Crime and Enforcement Update was impounded.

Possession Methamphetamine, Napoleon and Evans, July 11, 6:00 p.m. Bayview officers responded on a homeless call and located a man near a camper who was found to be on parole. The man was in possession of both crack cocaine, speed and marijuana. He was booked for numerous drug charges as well as violation of parole (050775300).

Possession Methamphetamine, 200 block Missouri, July 11, 7:00 p.m. Bayview's plainclothes officers responded to a well-known house on the 200 block of Missouri regarding narcotics sales. The officers observed several individuals in front of the residence, and two of the subjects immediately got up and walked in the gated opening upon seeing the officers. One of the individuals stood guard behind the locked gate while the other entered the residence. Two of the individuals, which remained outside, were found to have methamphetamine and marijuana laced with PCP in their possession.

A third subject entered the garage and closed the door behind him. An officer responded to the rear of a residence and found two suspects hiding items in the backyard. The officers eventually entered the residence and detained all the individuals, as well as a few pitbull dogs. The officers recovered several items from the backyard, including several thousand dollars, methamphetamine, crack cocaine, and live firearm ammunition. Seven people were arrested for keeping a place where narcotics are sold and other felony charges. (050775548)
